Step 2 - Finding Stolen Bike

Conversation at a restaurant

Woman 1 :

Hey, did you see that guy with the red hoodie? He just grabbed a bike that didn't look like his.

Woman 2 :

Yeah, I saw him. He was in a hurry. He took off towards the bike shop.

Woman 1 :

Hmm, the bike looked pretty fancy. I wonder if it was stolen

Woman 2 :

Maybe. If you are looking for him, you might want to check the bike shop down the street.

Conversation at a bike shop

Bike shop owner :

Yeah, someone came in earlier trying to sell a bike. It was a black mountain bike, but the guy seemed...nervous.

Customer :

Nervous? Like he was hiding something?

Bike shop owner :

Maybe. When I told him I wasn't interested in buying it, he called someone and mumbled something about a 'safe place' to leave it. I heard him mention something about a garage on Pine Street.

Customer :

Pine Street? That's nearby, right?

Pine Street

Bike stealer :

Yeah, yeah...I did just like what you told me! I left uhhh wait hold on a second I need to make sure nobody is listening. I left the bike in garage number 42. It's safe there, no one will find it. But please! don't say a word to anyone!, okay?
